IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW ORLEANS

"In continuing our commitment of support and healing, we invite and encourage people who have been sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees or volunteers of the Archdiocese of New Orleans to call the Victims' Assistance Coordinator: Sr. Carmelita Centanni, MSC, Ph.D., (504) 861-6253."

From Pope Francis (excerpts from the Papal Interview in August 2013)

When asked how he prayed, Pope Francis replied: "I pray the Liturgy of the Hours every morning. I love to pray with the Psalms. Later in the day I celebrated the Mass. I pray the Rosary, and pray in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament later in the day even if I am distracted or fall asleep praying.

Prayer for me is always a prayer of memory, or recollection, of what the Lord has done in the church or in my life. I ask myself, 'what have I done for Christ? What am I doing to further the kingdom of God? What is God asking of me today?'

It is the memory of which St. Ignatius speaks in the "contemplation for experiencing divine Love" where he asks us to recall the gifts we have received. Most of all I know that the Lord remembers me. I know that He never, ever forgets me."

My eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of the peoples.

Lord Teach Us To Pray A 12 week prayer experience for women. This Ignatian model requires commitment by participants to pray for 15 minutes each day using Scripture passages and share the fruits of prayer in a small faith setting each week. Prayer style centers on Christian virtue, through meditation, affective listening, and memory to deepen one's spiritual journey of prayer. Sessions begin on Monday, January 27, at 6:30pm in Chapel. Enter through the elevator.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — There will come to the temple the LORD whom you seek (Malachi 3:1-4).

Psalm — Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord! (Psalm 24).

Second Reading — Jesus became like his brothers and sisters in every way to help the children of Abraham (Heb. 2:14-18).

Gospel — The just and pious Simeon proclaims the infant Jesus to be a revealing light to the Gentiles, the glory of the people Israel (Luke 2:22-40)

A CHRISTMAS REPRISE

The Church's celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the "official" end of the Christmas season. Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a "second Epiphany."

The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, as Malachi writes, "Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me." The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a "share" in our own "blood and flesh." The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth.

In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with "wisdom" and the "favor of God."

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line. The Hot Line is available 24 hours a day and your message will be received confidentially by a trained mental health professional. In addition, anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253
