Prayer for Earth Day

Infinite Spirit, sometimes called Grandfather, Grandmother — Father Sky, Earth Mother, Creator:

We gather to praise your creation, to honor the swimmers and crawlers, the four-leggeds and the winged ones; we give thanks for the beauty and glory of creation and open our hearts to new ways to understand our place in the universe—not the center or focus, but a humble and balanced place, where every step we take becomes a prayer, where every word we say makes harmony with the vast, vibrating cosmos, and where we know we are singing the song of life.

We pray to know more deeply that we are in the Garden where every plant and animal and all of life is a living prayer. Without our brothers and sisters of the plant and animal and mineral kingdoms, the human family would end. So we want to bless them, as they bless us.

Wondrous trees, breathing life into the atmosphere: your gifts of fire and shelter, fruit, and sailing are precious to us. And in many ways you offer us leaves of knowledge. May the vision of mutual inter-relatedness and interdependence, the seamless process of generations, not end in cough-filled skies blotting the sun, but rather may clear air, healthy forests, wholesome water, expansive prairie, and pungent earth nourish paths for all creatures through mountain and valley, and the salt sea, and through a protective atmosphere, as we rejoice in the inhabitants.

Giving thanks for the surprise and mystery of it all, we pray in the name of the Creator, the Processes and Presences, and all our relations.

You alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling. — Psalm 4:9

Congratulations and Blessings to our New Members:

Hanna, Jenaphur, Kharie, Katharine, Kevin, Rachel, Ray, and Steve.

FULFILLMENT

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." It likewise contains the phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets." Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ.

They recognized Him in the breaking of the bread.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19).

Psalm — Lord, let your face shine on us (Psalm 4).

Second Reading — We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one (1 John 2:1-5a).

Gospel — Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day (Lk 24:35-48).

Angel Statue visits Notre Dame Seminary

On Saturday, April 10, at 11 a.m., a prayer service will be held to welcome the "Angels Unawares" statue to New Orleans. This 3-ton, 20 foot bronze statue will be on display and open to the public to visit on the grounds of Notre Dame Seminary through May 21, 2021. "Angels Unawares" depicts centuries of migrants leaving their homelands for a better and safer life for their families, and embodies Hebrews 13:2, "Don not neglect to show hospitality to strangers for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."
