Graduations are so interesting because they are the fusions of two phases of our lives; one you are about to let go of, and one you are about to begin. In a sense, you are in this place of complete certainty and familiarity, but at the same time, you are tentative and unsure of these amazing and new opportunities that lie ahead.

Graduation is a time of joy and hope that celebrates learning and studies, friendships, achievements, hard work and blessings. However, even though graduations mark the end of school, the importance of reflection should continue throughout your life no matter what we are doing. The big milestones like graduations tend to be the most exciting, but the little moments in between the milestones are often even more special.

Loving God, we thank you for all who graduate from grade school, high school, college and seminary. You have blessed them during their years in school with wisdom, family, friendships, and skills. You continue to challenge them to make this world a better place because of their education and dedication.

Help our graduates to look forward to their next steps: continuing in their education or entering the world. Particularly help those who are seeking employment to find meaningful employment in their field. Give them faith and a sense of purpose in their journey of life, service and ongoing learning. Show them how to serve others like Jesus in effective ways. And may they be always be aware in everything they do that they will find fulfillment in doing your will, that you will be with them always, and that you will bring to completion the good work you have begun in them.

Amen.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit.— 1 Corinthians 12:4

Please pray for _____, and _____ for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, and _____ for the Diocese of Yendi, who will be ordained for the priesthood at the Cathedral on Sat., June 5, 2021.

Thank you for your generosity

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has already answered our prayer.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called covering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13). It is our mission to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

— They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

— Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

— There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

— As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23)

_____ Blessings and prayers to all who graduate, their faculty and staff, their families and support community! May God bless you with wisdom to discern how to use your gifts to praise God and further the Kingdom.

The _____ is a gesture of solidarity through which every member of the faithful can participate in the activity of the Pope as Pastor of the universal Church. "The faithful's offerings to the Holy Father through the Peter's Pence Collection are destined to Church needs, to humanitarian initiatives and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See."
