Fathers Day

"When you're young, you're convinced that your dad is Superman. Then you grow up, and you realize he's just a wonderful guy who wears a cape."

"Lately all my friends are worried they're turning into their fathers. Frankly, I'm worried I'm not."

"The older I get, the smarter my father gets."

"A father carries pictures where his money used to be."

"Anyone can be a father, but it takes someone special, committed and loving to be a dad, and that's why I call you dad, because you are so special to me."

The Year of the Eucharist

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present monetary offerings. But the meaning is the same. We bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God transforms them and us into the body of Christ. It is through our generous sharing that our parish can continue to serve others like Christ.

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation. — 2 Corinthians 5:17

Please pray for Scott Jacobowski, CM who will be ordained to the priesthood for the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians) at St. Vincent Church in Los Angeles on Friday, June 25, 2021.

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord said to Job: Who shut within doors the sea? And who said: Thus far shall you come but no farther! (Job 38:1, 8-11).

Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting (Psalm 107).

Second Reading — Whoever is in Christ is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:14-17).

Gospel — Who is this whom even wind and sea obey? (Mark 4:35-41).

The Golden Wedding Anniversary Celebration will take place on Sunday, June 27, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. at St. Philip Neri Church.

As a gift for the people of the Archdiocese of New Orleans in this Year of the Eucharist & St. Joseph, our partners at The Vigil Project have produced a new album “True Presence” exclusively for the Year of the Eucharist & St. Joseph. The music, both original and traditional devotionals to the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist is available for free download at <https://www.nolacatholicoye.com/music>.

This Sunday we welcome Fr. Pradee, missionary priest of the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate. The Missionary Cooperative Plan is threefold: to educate the faithful about missionary work of Christ, to provide spiritual and financial support for their efforts, and an equitable distribution of such funds.
