IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW ORLEANS

“In continuing our commitment of support and healing, we invite and encourage people who have been sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees or volunteers of the Archdiocese of New Orleans to call the Victims’ Assistance

Pope Francis

May 10, 2014

You are a leaven that can produce good bread for so many, the Bread for which there is so much hunger: listening to peoples concerns, aspirations, disappointments, hopes. Like those who have preceded you in the faith, you can restore hope to young people, help the elderly, open roads to the future, spread love in every place and every situation. If this does not happen, if your daily life lacks witness and a prophetic message, then, I say to you, there is an urgent need for conversion.

The Seed is the Word of God, Christ is the Sower. All Who Come to Him Will Live Forever.

Pope Francis' June Intentions

That immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come.

Evangelization:

That the personal encounter with Jesus may arouse in many young people the desire to offer their own lives in priesthood or consecrated life.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord said to Job: Who shut within doors the sea? And who said: Thus far shall you come but no farther! (Job 38:1, 8-11).

Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting (Psalm 107).

Second Reading — Whoever is in Christ is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:14-17).

Gospel — Who is this whom even wind and sea obey? (Mark 4:35-41).

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE
