Real Presence

Being present can be lending a hand and helping lift another's heavy load.

Real presence can be a friendly smile on a cloudy day.

Being present can be sharing a blessing, thought or prayer.

Real presence can be listening to someone who has something important to share.

Being present can be supporting, caring and believing in someone, even when they struggle to do so themselves.

Real presence can be offering a humble service, being part of a bigger effort.

Being present can be shedding a tear with someone who is filled with sorrow.

Real presence can be writing a note or the gift of a flower.

Being present can be sitting together watching the water or seeing the sun set.

Real presence can be holding hands, a hug or a kiss.

Being present can be waiting together for some important news. Real presence is how God touches so many hearts through our eyes and ears, hands and feet, heart and soul.

As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. — 1 Cor. 11:26

DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram (Genesis 14:18-20).

Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek (Psalm 110).

Second Reading — Paul gives his description of the institution of the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Gospel — Jesus spoke to the crowd about the kingdom of God and then fed them with five loaves and two fish (Luke 9:1-17).

THIS SACRED MEAL

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Each of the readings includes a blessing and a sharing of food. They remind us of the central place of meals in our lives. Each meal brings to mind other meals: the sharing of cookies and milk, pizza and beer, loaves and fishes, bread and wine. When we prepare a meal for our family, our friends, even strangers, we always put something of ourselves into the preparation and the meal itself. The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us of what God put into the preparation for this meal that we celebrate today. We share this sacred meal and are transformed as we remember the death of Jesus and the sacrifice that nurtures our faith, sustains our lives, and supports our work.

Pope Francis’ June Intention

That priests, with modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

Blessings and Congratulations to

Skylar Reece Gerard Finnan

Who was baptized last Sunday with water and the Holy Spirit

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims’ Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
