We all yearn to be welcomed and belong. Our Christian faith calls us to stretch and grow beyond our comfort zone or, as Pope Francis is so fond of saying, “go out of ourselves.” Hospitality is a hallmark of discipleship. Jesus considered it so important that he says: “For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me” (Mt 25:35).

Hospitality is grounded in our conviction that all human beings, regardless of status, state of life or cultural background, have worth and dignity. This conviction manifests itself in respecting and accepting not just those who are comfortably similar to us but also those, especially those, who are unfamiliar or seem strange or foreign. Let the Letter to the Hebrews remind us, “Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels” (13:2).

Consider how you might help create a sense of welcome and belonging in your place of worship:

- Our Sunday liturgy starts as the Holy Spirit gathers us. Smile and greet others with a “hello” or “good morning.”
- Sit toward the center of a pew to leave room for others who might arrive later.
- Pay attention to those sitting around you and welcome guests and visitors and offer help if someone needs assistance.
- Welcome and introduce yourself to families with children or elderly who may be at Mass alone.
- Speak with someone who might not naturally go up to and ask them something about themselves.

It is Christ whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom. — Colossians 1:28b

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Abraham shows hospitality to three visitors (Genesis 18:1-10a).

Psalm — He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord (Psalm 15).

Second Reading — The mystery hidden from generations past has been manifested; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory (Colossians 1:24-28).

Gospel — Jesus converses with Martha and Mary about service and contemplation (Luke 10:38-42).

A MINDSET OF SERVICE

There’s a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers. The psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God’s steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke’s Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha, and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others. Each of us can ask, How am I present to God and others in my life?

Pope Francis’ July Intention

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word..

Congratulations!

Donnie Mehrtens*
