The Year of the Eucharist

The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called “a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth” (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God’s gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. “By his birth we are reborn,” we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. “By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life.” Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Today’s Gospel has the crowd asking Jesus three questions. First, “When did you get here,” to which Jesus responds by rebuking them for their failure to grasp his miracle as a “sign,” an occasion to put faith in him. Their second question about accomplishing the “works of God” has Jesus respond that faith is the “work” that God wishes. Many scholars believe this is John’s answer to the faith-works dichotomy emerging in the early Christian community. Faith is the work of God in the believer, John would have us understand. The third question asked by the crowd is a request for a “sign” that would allow them to put faith in Jesus, as the manna in the desert allowed the Israelites to put faith in the Lord God. Jesus answers by revealing himself as the “bread of life” that “comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Israel receive bread from heaven in response to their grumbling (Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15).

Psalm — The Lord gave them bread from heaven (Psalm 78).

Second Reading — Put on the new self that has been created in God’s way (Ephesians 4:17, 20-24).

Gospel — I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger (John 6:24-35).

Did you know?... Global consumption of plastic bags is around 500 billion, which end up in landfills and oceans worldwide each year. Many counties in the United States and countries in the world have plastic bag bans. The U.S. uses 12 million barrels of oil every year to meet plastic bag demand and 100 billion plastic bags are discarded. Conversely, in 2008, South Australia introduced a total ban of lightweight plastic bags; as a result, it’s estimated that 400 million bags are removed from the waste stream each year. (Source: Data compiled by the 2018 International Summit on Plastic) Let’s show our reverence for and care of creation and take reusable shopping bags to the store.

RCIA—The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—This faith formation and education process is beginning on August 5, and starts at 6:30 pm. It meets two times each month and is designed for people who want to learn more about the Catholic faith, who are returning to the church after an absence or who want to become fully initiated members of the Catholic church. It is a gradual process that leads the participants step-by-step into the mystery of faith and the church, as they feel God is calling them to proceed. For more information, speak to Fr. Tom, Anne Wallace or Sr. Claire Edwards, DC after Mass or contact the office.
