The Great Spiritual Traditions of Prayer

CARMELITE TRADITION

Carmelite spirituality is characterized by an intense desire for an immediate experience of God. Carmelite spirituality is centered on prayer, understood as intimate friendship with God, and contemplation as a free gift from God. Focusing on a relationship with Jesus, can be expressed in a variety of ways through the major sources of the Carmelite tradition, such as, the Rule of St. Albert, the writings of Sts. Teresa and John of the Cross, and other Carmelite Saints. In the Rule of St. Albert, a life of allegiance to Jesus Christ is expressed through a gradual and progressive transformation whereby one grows to put on the mind and heart of Jesus. Prayer and contemplation when seen as a relationship with God is not viewed as a technique, but a way of life in which there is no experience outside the ambit of relationship with God. Contemplation in the Carmelite Spirituality emphasized the Divine Indwelling. Carmelite Spirituality proposes silence and solitude as preparation for prayer and contemplation. Silence refers both the external noise but also to the stilling of one's interior spiritual life. Asceticism is a means of freeing one's self from the tyranny of self-will whereby a life of simplicity focuses all energy on a journey to God.

Jesus endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God. — Hebrews 12:2

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — They took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern (Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10).

Psalm — Lord, come to my aid! (Psalm 40).

Second Reading — Let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith (Hebrews 12:1-4).

Gospel — I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing (Luke 12:49-53).

LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this.

Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus’ teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen.

Pope Francis’ August Intention

That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of faith and true human growth."

Congratulations!

to Olive Jean
Emma Elizabeth
