1 8 1 7      Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians) Bicentennial Anniversary      2 0 1 7

Fr. Joseph Rosati, CM, one of the first Vincentians in the United States, became the first bishop of the Diocese of St. Louis. When the Diocese was established, it included Missouri, the western half of Illinois and much of the American territory west of the Mississippi—most of the land included in the Louisiana Purchase. As the largest American diocese, it stretched from the Canadian border to the Republic of Mexico. The territory was roughly equal to the country's other nine dioceses combined.

In 1837, three new dioceses were carved out, including Natchez, Nashville and Dubuque. Over the years, large areas became part of new dioceses, like Chicago, Little Rock and Kansas City. Early American bishops included Vincentians, John Mary Odin, bishop of Galveston, and later New Orleans; Stephen Vincent Ryan, CM, bishop of Buffalo, New York and 15 others named to the episcopacy. Vincentian bishops and missionaries helped to form the new dioceses from Buffalo to Salt Lake City, from Los Angeles to Pittsburgh.

Today Bishops continue to serve the church in North America in Alaska, and New Jersey and around the world. In seminaries they have served US dioceses, ordaining tens of thousands of local clergy, with great love and a heart for the poor and those in need.

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life. John 6, 63

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Eliakim is destined by God to be a father to those who live in Jerusalem (Isaiah 22:19-23).
Psalm — Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands (Psalm 138).
Second Reading — How deep are the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33-36).
Gospel — Jesus asked the disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" (Matthew 16:13-20).

BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower and friend of Jesus is a spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love and mercy, on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the limitations and the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ.

Pope Francis' August Intentions

That artists of our time, through their ingenuity, may help everyone discover the beauty of creation.

Saints Home Game Parking

St. Joseph's annual fund raiser is our parking lot for every Saints home game. If you are able to offer your service 2 hours before a home game, please call the office or speak to Judy Reese or Fr. Tom.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
