The Great Spiritual Traditions of Prayer

Trappist TRADITION

Separation from the World: Obviously cloistered enclosure is a defining element. Contemplatives separate themselves from the world to create a physical and spiritual sacred space in which we may be free to listen, encounter and grow in God. Simplicity: This is also a rejection of all that is extravagant or superfluous, not only in diet, sleep, clothing, furnishing, but even in matters of liturgy and personal prayer. Desiring an uncomplicated relationship with the God of simplicity, by the most direct means possible. Liturgy: Mass in the center of our life and day, from which the Divine Office, the official prayers of the Church, radiate and return. This continual coming home to God through the hours of day and night in communal sung prayer provides the framework of our life and a continuous hymn of praise to the Glory of God. Brotherhood: Trappists are a family, a brotherhood supporting and serving one another on our mutual journey toward eternal life. Zeal for Souls: Mindful that our life is a participation in and cooperation with the Redemptive mission of Christ, Trappists believe with certainty that Jesus draws great graces from our cooperation and uses these graces for the conversion of perishing souls and the good of the Kingdom. Devotion to the Sacred Humanity of Jesus and to the Blessed Virgin Mary: We cultivate a tender and personal friendship with the Lord Jesus. Only in this intimate friendship will the brothers be happy to preserve us in a life that is ordinary, obscure and laborious. Our Blessed Mother is an ever present guide who leads us ever more deeply into this intimate relationship with Her Son. Contemplative Prayer Monastic life is a an apostolate whose total dedication is toward Heaven and the grace the community brings to the world. This is where all the pillars coverage and lead to.

Fill us with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. — Psalm 90:14

The Beginning Experience Weekend on September 27-29, 2019, is a wonderful healing experience for those suffering a loss of a spouse either through death or separation/divorce. The weekend will take place at Rosaryville Spirit Life Center in Ponchatoula, Louisiana. Those who have attended this weekend attest to the new hope they have received and the powerful safe and loving environment they found in the experience. Under the sponsorship of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, Office of Marriage and Family Life, this international program has helped thousands navigate the road through grief. Call, text or email Renell (985) 290-7348 renell1@yahoo.com for more information.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You sent your holy spirit from on high and thus were the paths of those on earth made straight (Wisdom 9:13-18).

Psalm — In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge (Psalm 90).

Second Reading — Paul asks Philemon to accept back his slave Onesimus as a brother (Philemon 9-10, 12-17).

Gospel — Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? (Luke 14:25-33)

POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day. Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth activities with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges long-time friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors.

Pope Francis' September Intention

That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans.

Congratulations!
