The Great Spiritual Traditions of Prayer

Salesian TRADITION

A contemporary of St. Vincent, Francis de Sales wrote “The Devout Life,” as a manual for living out the dignity of our baptismal call. Salesian spirituality is down-to-earth. It is practical. It employs ordinary, every day, easily available means for living a life of holiness and for challenging/supporting others to do the same in a collegial manner. Salesian spirituality is a rich, empowering and challenging vision for living a God-centered life of service to one's brothers and sisters. It is a practical, down-to-earth approach for making real and tangible here on earth something of the justice, reconciliation and peace promised forever in heaven. Salesian spirituality is a life of integrating the love of God, self and neighbor. Clearly, it meets the six requirements - and then some – for pursuing a collaborative model for living, working, following and leading in the cultural, political, social, economic and religious milieu in which we live. 1. It is a call to reflect upon who I am/what I am doing in the midst of a busy life. It is about intentionality: it is a call to express my love for God in all the actions of my life, both great and small. Done for the love of God, all actions are seen as sanctifying and salvific. It is a challenge me to meet well the duties, responsibilities and challenges of my life, and to do ordinary things well, with zeal, with passion, with heart, from my core. It is a challenge to accept the will of God in every event, including setbacks, frustrations and failures. And an invitation imitate the humble, gentle Christ who came to serve, not to be served, to relate to myself and others in a compassionate manner.

Fill us with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. — Psalm 90:14

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — “Why should your wrath blaze up against your own people, whom you brought out of Egypt?” (Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14).

Psalm — I will rise and go to my father (Psalm 51).

Second Reading — The grace of our Lord has been abundant (1 Timothy 1:12-17).

Gospel — There is great rejoicing in heaven and among the angels when a sinner repents (Luke 15:1-32).

LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to “Lost and Found Sunday”! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today’s Gospel suggests that we’d be wiser to admit that we’re sometimes lost. Then we’ll eventually be happily counted among Jesus’ “found,” because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, “began to complain” that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God’s amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus’ friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God “relented in punishment” and pardoned us, shouldn’t we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his “arrogance” as “foremost among sinners.” We too, happy at being “mercifully treated,” should share with everyone else Jesus’ unflinching patience.

Pope Francis’ September Intention

That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims’ Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
