IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW ORLEANS

“In continuing our commitment of support and healing, we invite and encourage people who have been sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees or volunteers of the Archdiocese of New Orleans to call the Victims’ Assistance Coordinator: Sr. Carmelita Centanni, MSC, Ph.D., (504) 861-6253.”

Year of Faith “Such participation by the Christian people as ‘a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people’ (1 Peter 2:9; see 2:4–5) is their right and duty by reason of their baptism”

That the Church is “a chosen race” suggests that God chose, or called, each of us to be members of his Church. Priests are those who offer prayers and worship on behalf of others. Each baptized person prays for the needs of the world, the Church, the nation, and those in need. Daily prayer is a priestly act by the baptized. During Lent, the giving of alms, praying for others, and fasting are aspects of the priesthood of the baptized. The Church is also called to be “a holy nation.” When we think of the word nation, we tend to think of our country and its government or political concerns. As a holy nation, the Church promotes holiness in families, neighborhoods, society, and the world. This means living the fruits of faith in what one does daily.

The LORD lifts up all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down. — Psalm 145:14

ALTAR OF LIFE

Our Christian Faith reminds us of God's plan that we would spend eternity with our Creator. Our Catholic Faith holds the beautiful tradition that all who are baptized in Christ are united in his love. At the Eucharist we become One Body in Christ. Early Christians celebrated Mass at the graves on the day that the deceased loved ones entered eternal life. While it is not always possible to visit the graves and niches of our loved ones today because of distance, the Altar of Life is a way of celebrating our unity in God and reminding ourselves that those who have gone before us intercede for us in heaven as do we for them here on earth. Please put your name and phone number on back of pictures.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Lord, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).

Psalm — I will praise you name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).

Gospel — Today salvation has come to the tax collector Zacchaeus' house (Luke 19:1-10).

ALL-POWERFUL YET CARING GOD

It used to be that when I thought, "Old Testament," I thought of narratives written many centuries before Christ. Then I learned that today's passage from the book of Wisdom was written less than one hundred years before Jesus came along. These words were so contemporaneous with Jesus that he himself conceivably could have written or spoken them. He certainly lived them.

The Wisdom reading is a poetic prayer celebrating a Creator -God before whom the universe is like a grain of sand, yet who is still lovingly concerned with every individual. This is the God whom Jesus reveals, with unlimited power over all creation, yet watching out for sinners climbing trees.

Zacchaeus was no ordinary tax collector, but the chief tax collector, and "a wealthy man." But he wasn't too proud to run ahead and clamber up into a sycamore tree just to get a glimpse of Jesus. Maybe, sinner though he was, he recognized in this wandering preacher the object of the Wisdom poet's adoration.

FEED JESUS:

Help make Jesus' holiday's brighter:

Thank you for bringing yams, cranberries,
stuffing mix, black eyed peas,
Cookie mix, brown sugar,
green beans, cream of mushroom,
marshmallows, family-size tooth paste.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line. The Hot Line is available 24 hours a day and your message will be received confidentially by a trained mental health professional. In addition, anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253
