Remembering and Praying for the Faithful Departed

The practice of praying for the dead is rooted first in Christian belief in eternal life that come from Jesus’ teachings and are foreshadowed in the disciples experience that Jesus had risen from the dead. Although we are separated from our earthly body at death, our relationship with God transcends death itself.

Praying for the dead has further origins in our belief in the Communion of the Saints. Living members of this community often pray and intercede for each other by prayers and through spiritual support. The faithful departed continue to be members of the Body of Christ, of the Communion of all the baptized. We believe that as human beings we need of God’s mercy and forgiveness and after death there will be a process or period of purification. We continue to aid our brothers and sisters with our prayers and ask them to help us with theirs.

Prayers for those who have died often begin at the bedside with family members. In many places it is customary to meet and pray for nine days or a novena. The Order of Christian Funerals has a Vigil Service, Funeral Mass and Rite of Committal. We remember them with Masses on special occasions throughout the year or on the anniversary of their death. At every Eucharist we remember those who have died and ask God to be merciful and remove any barriers that might keep them from entering into eternal peace and life.

I will praise you name for ever, my Lord and my God

Psalm 145

ALTAR OF LIFE Our Christian faith reminds us of God's plan that we would spend eternity with our Creator. Our Catholic Faith holds that all who are baptized in Christ are united in his love. At the Eucharist we share from the one Bread and drink from the one Cup to become through the Spirit of Jesus, One Body in Christ. Early Christians would celebrate Mass at the graves of their deceased loved ones to celebrate the day that they entered eternal life. While it is not always possible to visit the graves and niches of our loved ones to show our love for the faithful departed, the Altar of Life is a celebration of their lives, faith and example and our unity in God. It is a reminder that those who have gone before us who are with God are still united to us and intercede for us in heaven just as we pray for them here on earth. All are welcome to bring a picture or symbol of a deceased loved one and place it on the Altar of Remembrance or to write their name in the Book of the Names of the Deceased over by the altar. Please write your name and phone number on the back of a picture or remembrances.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Lord, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).

Psalm — I will praise you name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).

Gospel — Today salvation has come to the tax collector Zacchaeus' house (Luke 19:1-10).

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent and glorify God.

Pope Francis' November Intention

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together

Congratulations!
