Remembering and Praying for the Faithful Departed

The practice of praying for the dead is rooted first in Christian belief in eternal life that come from Jesus' teachings and are foreshadowed in the disciples experience that Jesus had risen from the dead. Although we are separated from our earthly body at death, our relationship with God transcends death itself.

Praying for the dead has further origins in our belief in the Communion of the Saints. Living members of this community often pray and intercede for each other by prayers and through spiritual support. The faithful departed continue to be members of the Body of Christ, of the Communion of all the baptized. We believe that as human beings we need of God's mercy and forgiveness and after death there will be a process or period of purification. We continue to aid our brothers and sisters with our prayers and ask them to help us with theirs.

Prayers for those who have died often begin at the bedside with family members. In many places it is customary to meet and pray for nine days or a novena. The Order of Christian Funerals has a Vigil Service, Funeral Mass and Rite of Committal. We remember them with Masses on special occasions throughout the year or on the anniversary of their death. At every Eucharist we remember those who have died and ask God to be merciful and remove any barriers that might keep them from entering into eternal peace and life.

I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God. — Psalm 17:6

ALTAR OF LIFE Our Christian faith reminds us of God's plan that we would spend eternity with our Creator. Our Catholic Faith holds that all who are baptized in Christ are united in his love. At the Eucharist we share from the one Bread and drink from the one Cup to become through the Spirit of Jesus, One Body in Christ. Early Christians would celebrate Mass at the graves of their deceased loved ones to celebrate the day that they entered eternal life. While it is not always possible to visit the graves and niches of our loved ones to show our love for the faithful departed, the Altar of Life is a celebration of their lives, faith and example and our unity in God. It is a reminder that those who have gone before us who are with God are still united to us and intercede for us in heaven just as we pray for them here on earth. All are welcome to bring a picture or symbol of a deceased loved one and place it on the Altar of Remembrance or to write their name in the Book of the Names of the Deceased over by the altar. Please write your name and phone number on the back of a picture or other items of remembrance.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever (2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14).
Psalm — Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full (Psalm 17).
Second Reading — May the Lord encourage and strengthen your hearts (2 Thessalonians 2:16 — 3:5).
Gospel — Those who are deemed worthy of the coming age can no longer die (Luke 20:27-38).

CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, he says, will live forever like angels.

Pope Francis' November Intention

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together

Congratulations!

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
