MARK YOU CALENDAR

Conversations around the Social Mission of the Church. During these “VUCA” (volatile, uncertain, confusing and ambiguous) times, it is helpful to step back in conversation around what the Church has taught over the course of its history. Please join us online for dialogue around some of these pressing issues of our day. Thursdays, Nov. 19, and Dec. 10, 2020, 7:00-8:15 PM Topics Include: Housing - a Basic Human Right with Veronica Reed (Nov. 19) 5) The Advent Call to Simple Living with Deacon Michael Whitehouse (Dec. 10). To register for one these online presentations, email Kevin Fitzpatrick at kfitzpatrick@ccano.org.

Made for More, with acclaimed speaker Christopher West and musician Mike Mangione, is an evening of beauty and reflection that weaves music, video, images and the spoken word into a message of hope that there really is a banquet of love that corresponds to the deepest hunger of our hearts. The event will take place at St. Dominic Church, 775 Harrison Ave, New Orleans, LA 70124 in Lakeview at 7pm on Thursday, Dec.10, 2020.

This Thanksgiving, let those of us who have much and those who have little gather at the welcoming table of the Lord. At this blessed feast, may rich and poor alike remember that we are called to serve on another and to walk together in God's gracious world. With thankful hearts, we praise our God who like a loving parent denies us no good thing. — From Songs of Our Hearts, Meditations of Our Souls: Prayers for Black Catholics.

Having only modest talent is no excuse for not using it. Think what the morning would be like if only talented birds sang!

Blessed are you who fear the LORD. — Psalm 128:1

Through this collection you support programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities . In addition 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The woman who fears the LORD is to be praised (Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31).

Psalm — Blessed are those who fear the Lord (Ps 128).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, you are children of the light (1 Thessalonians 5:1-6).

Gospel — Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities (Matthew 25:14-30).

CHANGE OUR LIVES

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent, and that devoting time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor subsided a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart, if we really believe that Christ still may come upon us as a “thief at night” (1 Thessalonians 5:2). Does this mean that we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus.
