A Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission

The Church of God is convoked in Synod. The path entitled “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission” opened on the 9th – 10th of October 2021 in Rome and then in each local Church. One main stage will be the celebration of the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, in October 2023, which will be followed by the implementation phase that will again involve the particular Churches.

With this convocation, Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: “It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium.” This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church’s “renewal” proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been travelled, the Church will better learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to invite and achieve fuller participation, and to open Herself to mission. Our “journeying together” is, in fact, what most effectively enacts and manifests the nature of the Church as the pilgrim and missionary People of God.

Synodality represents the main road for the Church, called to renew herself under the action of the Spirit and by listening to the Word. The ability to imagine a different future for the Church and her institutions, in keeping with the mission she has received, depends largely on the decision to initiate processes of listening, dialogue, and community discernment, in which each and every person can participate and contribute. To “journey together,” we must be educated by the Spirit to a truly synodal mentality, entering with courage and freedom of heart into a conversion process that is indispensable for the “continual reformation of the Church which is a human institution.

Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. — Lk 6:20

Workshops for New Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Readers Basic workshops for new Ministers are being presented this Spring by the Office of Worship, the required preparation before a person can be delegated by the Archbishop to serve the community. The complete schedules and more information can be found on the Office of Worship website at <https://nolacatholic.org/lay-liturgical-ministry-formation>. Please pre-register in our parish before attending. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Worship at 504-861-6300 or worship@arch-no.org

Thank you for your generosity!

The Archdiocesan Golden Anniversary celebration will take place on Sunday, June 26, 2022 at 3:00 p.m. at St. Philip Neri Church. This celebration with the Archbishop will be a prayer service, not a Mass. Attendance of Mass for Sunday will have to be within one's respective parish. (To register, please contact the parish office by March 1, 2022) Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, author of "Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father," will share his Conversion Story at St. Francis Xavier Church, 444 Metairie Road on Wednesday, March 9. Confession 6 pm. Presentation 7 pm.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The one who trusts in the LORD is like a tree planted beside the waters (Jeremiah 17:5-8).

Psalms — Blessed are they who hope in the Lord (Ps. 1).

Second Reading — Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep (1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20).

Gospel — Blessed are you who are poor, hungry, weeping. Woe to you who are rich, filled, laughing (Luke 6:17, 20-26).

FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are "raised from the dead," as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into joy and lightness of spirit? The Kingdom of God turns everything upside down. Are you feeling blessed today?

Pope Francis' February Intention

For religious sisters & consecrated women

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

SANCTUARY CANDLE AND MASS INTENTIONS

The Sanctuary Candle this week is in memory of Mr. & Mrs. Gerard Tonglet. To reserve the Sanctuary Candle in memory of someone/special intention, call the church office (504-522-3186). The offering is $15 for one week. The offering for Mass intentions is $5.00.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
